Using MindTap through a Learning Management System

Some schools use MindTap through a Learning Management System. Common learning systems include Blackboard, Desire 2 Learn, Canvas and Moodle. But your school may use a different name for their system.

If you've been instructed to launch course materials through your school's learning system or web site, then you don't need to enter a course key here. Instead, log into your school's system and launch MindTap from your listed Courses. This will automatically enroll you in the right course. hide

You're All Set!
